

Tips that we want to give you...

You have to make some lists for the questions. For example, for the part of Self introduction, you can write the questions like, "Can you please introduce yourself?" or "Would you please introduce yourself?" ...and then, you have to think about, how you will answer the questions.

Self-introduction:

name?; age?; where are you from?; which university and which major do you learn, have you finished your study and which degree you have. (if you want to talk more, you can talk about the job of your parents and your hobbies. Except the above information, you don't need to talk more.)

The Reason why you choose to study in Germany:

Firstly,

Secondly,

Lastly,

(you can talk about the advanced education in Germany, your major, you would like to learn German, learning in Germany will help to improve your skills...but don't forget, according to your own situation and your major.)

How much money will you prepare for your study and living Expenses in Germany?

You have to know clearly, how much you will spend for the dormitory and the food per month or a year

How much are the insurance expenses?

80-90 Euros per month will be deducted from the deposit account.

What' s your plan of studying in Germany?

Maybe first I will do the language study, and then the Bachelor/ Master. How long?

For which university are you going to apply? Why do you want to enter this university? What is required? Where is this university located? How much are the living costs per month in the city? Where is your university located?

Make sure that you know the answers very clearly and respond directly and organized.

Where do you live when you are in Germany?

What kind of difficulties will you probably meet in Germany?

language, the communication with the locals, homesick...but at last, you have to show that you can overcome all of them. You have your own Study-plan and know how to organize your free time.

Who afford all the expenses?

My parents will afford all the expenses. You should stress that you don't want to take a part-time job. You would like to finish your study as soon as possible and come back to China.

Do you have any friends or relatives in Germany?

If you have relatives, please pretend that you don't have, besides they are your parents or your family.

If you have ever been in Germany for a long time, you can say, you have some friends, but you don't contact with them very often.

Are you married?

Tell the truth

Have you ever been in Germany or foreign countries?

Tell the truth

If you have the experience, try to describe it very well, because the teachers are very interested in this topic and they expect hearing something interesting from you. (try your best to say something positive and what you have learned!)

Introduction of your courses:

Try to think about, which are your favorite courses and why. How did you learn it and study by yourself, which you have learned from the course.

Try to think about, which courses are very important and why. How did you learn it and study yourself, which you have learned from the course.

Try to give some useful examples about some courses. You can draw something and describe it.

Other important questions you have to think of:

If the teacher asks you something and you don't know the answer, what would you say or do, to avoid the embarrassment.

If you don't understand what the teacher says, what would you do?

If they ask something that you are very familiar with, what will you do?

If the teacher says that you are wrong, but if you don't think so, what will you do?

If they cannot understand what you say, what will you do?

If you forget something important, or you forget some words, or you don't know how to express yourself, what will you do?

If you are very nervous, what will you do to make yourself calm down?

We wish you good luck and having a wonderful learning life! Try your best!
